- The choices / preferences submitted by the candidates will be processed and seat will be provisionally allotted in the order of merit as per application form submitted
- Candidates must be present at the time of Counseling
- The University reserves the right to withdraw the admission in case candidates DOES NOT fulfil minimum qualification / required percentage or marks in qualifying examination or supplies any false information, whatsoever the case may be.
- Cases of overlooking or ignoring the related information will not be entertained.

Next Round of Counseling for seat allotment:

Candidates eligible for seat allotment in the next round fall into one of the following sets:

- Set – 1: Registered candidates who did not get any seat allotment in the 1st round.
- Set – 2: Registered candidates who were allotted a seat in lower preference in the previous selection list.
- A candidate is not eligible to a specific course if he/she has higher percentage of marks/Final Score/Entrance Test Marks (as applicable) than the last candidate selected in the previous counseling /selection list of that specific course.

For example; in one counseling last candidates had following scores :

- i. for course A – 490
- ii. for course B – 480
- iii. for course C – 470
- iv. for course D – 460

In the next round of counseling, a candidate having score 472 is not eligible for course C & D but the candidate is eligible for course A & B and like that.
